GOLF GAMES

---

HUNTINGDALE GOLF COURSE

18 Holes, Par 72, ACR 74, 6340m

Huntingdale is one of the most famous private golf clubs in Australia. Situated in the heart of Melbourne's famous Sandbelt the course is a very tight driving course, with the hard and fast greens that are so typical of the golf courses in the region. The course was recently renovated to improve drainage and to make it more challenging. There are a memorable finishing stretch of holes, with plenty of variety in design. It was the longtime home to the Australian Masters and played host to some of the most famous names in international golf, including Jack Nicklaus, Greg Norman, Ian Baker-Finch, Nick Price and Tiger Woods. The greens are true and fast and are generally kept in Masters Condition throughout the year.

ROYAL MELBOURNE GOLF COURSE

18 Holes, Par 72, ACR 71.6, 6023m

Royal Melbourne's two courses, the East Course and the West Course, are each ranked amongst the best in the world. Royal Melbourne has hosted numerous national and international events, most famously the 1959 Canada Cup, and the 1970 World Cup. It was selected by the PGA Tour to hold the Presidents Cup for the first time outside the United States in December 1998 and again hosted the Presidents Cup in 2011. A combination of holes from each course is called the Composite Course and in 2007 Golf Digest magazine ranked the Composite Course as the sixth best course in the world outside the United States. Lightning fast greens surrounded by cavernous bunkers will catch any wayward shots. Fairways lined by thick tea scrub. An absolute must play whilst in Australia.

VICTORIA GOLF COURSE

18 Holes, Par 72, ACR 73, 6174m

Located in Melbourne's sandbelt region. Famous for small, hard and fast greens that place a premium on iron play and putting. Greenside bunkering is well manicured and the couch fairways are tree lined. Features an outstanding array of short holes. Has hosted the Victorian Open, Victorian PGA and state amateur championships.
