ATTEND THE WASTE MANAGEMENT OPEN AT TPC SCOTTSDALE – SKY BOX TICKETS

The Phoenix Open is the best attended event in golf; with the 4-day attendance of the tournament usually around 500,000. The most popular hole for spectators to watch is the 16th hole due to the "Amphitheatre" atmosphere of the hole, created by the stands erected every year for the tournament. The hole could be described as "one big party", with many students from the nearby Arizona State University in attendance. Poor shots at the 16th hole receive boos, because the hole is very easy by the PGA's standards. Good shots, however, are cheered for loudly. Famous moments at the 16th include Tiger Woods' hole-in-one in 1997, which caused the gallery to and Justin Leonard giving the finger to the gallery after a poor shot. The exclusive Skybox Village provides one of the most valued opportunities to enjoy "The Greatest Show On Grass." Our Skybox overlooks the 16th hole and provides a breathtaking panoramic view of the action. The photo above was taken from our Skybox on the 2015 tour & the box includes a complimentary Buffet Lunch and Open Bar.
